

Zentrum Moderner Orient and Verlag Hans Schiler invite to:

„Parental Authority, Sexuality and Generation between Maghreb and Mashreq“ Public Talk and Discussion with Rita El Khayat and Michael Roes

February 22nd 2010, 19.00 pm

at the Zentrum für Literatur- und Kulturforschung

Schützenstraße 18 - 10117 Berlin

Room 308

The Discussion will be in English without translation.

Rita El Khayat is a well known Moroccan author, psychiatrist, anthropo-psychoanalyst and anthropologist. In 1999 she founded the Association Ainī Bennai to broaden and promote Moroccan culture. She published her first book „Le Monde Arabe au féminin“ in 1985. Her latest work about the Medea Complex has been recently published in German at the Verlag Hans Schiler: „Wenn sie Mütter werden – Medea und die Frauen des Mittelmeeres“.

(ISBN 978-3-89930-220-2)

Michael Roes is a German author and film-maker. He wrote, inter alia, the novel “Rub Al-Khali” in 1996 and the play „Madschnun Al-Malik“ in 1997, which was first performed in 1998. His latest novel „Die fünf Farben Schwarz“ was published in 2009.

www.zmo.de

Verlag Hans Schiler

www.schiler.de

Zentrum für Literatur- und
Kulturforschung
Berlin

www.zfl.gwz-berlin.de