

International Workshop

Religion, Social Reform and 'Development': Perspectives from the Indian Ocean Rim

November 23rd, 2012, Zentrum Moderner Orient (ZMO), Berlin

organized by Katrin Bromber (ZMO), Kai Kresse
(ZMO), and Soumen Mukherjee (ZMO)

Programm

9:30 - 10:15	Introductory Session Welcome Address & Introductory Comments Katrin Bromber, ZMO, Berlin Kai Kresse, ZMO, Berlin Soumen Mukherjee, ZMO, Berlin	14:00 - 14:30	Coffee Break
10:15 - 10:30	Coffee Break	14:30 - 15:30	Third Session - Religion and Society II: Communities, Diasporas and Identities Chair: Kai Kresse, ZMO, Berlin The Economics of Islam and the Politics of Nationalism: Indian Merchants in Mozambique since 1975 Jason Sumich (Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Trondheim) The Khoja Shia Ithna'Ashery of East & Central Africa vs Khojas of Motherland: Contending Discourses of Social & Religious Development Bashir Damji (University of Exeter)
10:30 - 12:30	First Session - The Politics and Poetics of 'Development' Chair: Birgit Krawietz, Free University, Berlin "Dreams of Spaces": Politics of Development and Regional Integration of the Persian Gulf and Mesopotamia in the British Imperial Project (1830 - 1960) Guillemette Cruzet (Paris-Sorbonne University/ Trinity College, Cambridge) Tribes and Empire on the Margins of the Indian Ocean: Technologies and Economies of Rule on the Mekran Coast 1860-1900 Hafeez Jamali (The University of Texas at Austin) Monsoon Fever Pamila Gupta (University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg)	15:30 - 16:00	Coffee Break
12:00 - 13:00	Lunch	16:00 - 17:30	Roundtable Discussion Moderation: Katrin Bromber (ZMO, Berlin) Discussants: Nile Green (University of California, Los Angeles) Preben Kaarsholm (Roskilde University) Mana Kia (Max Planck Institute for Human Development, Berlin) Soumen Mukherjee (ZMO, Berlin)
13:00 - 14:00	Second Session - Religion and Society I: Actors, Networks and Mobility Chair: Dietrich Reetz, ZMO, Berlin Transnational Islam and State Regulation in India and Mauritius Patrick Eisenlohr (Georg August University, Göttingen) Schools in Transnational Communities: Cultural Transmission, Domination and "Awakening" Denis Gay (HEP / Teacher Training University, Lausanne)		