

Sponsored by

Forum
Transregionale
Studien

Max Weber
Stiftung

Deutsche
Geisteswissenschaftliche
Institute im Ausland

Women and the Transregional Circulation of Knowledge, 1800-1950

Workshop (closed event)
20-22 June 2019
Forum Transregionale Studien
Wallotstraße 14, 14193 Berlin

Convenors

Heike Liebau (ZMO)
Tika Ramadhini (ZMO)
Thiago Pinto Barbosa (ZMO)

Contact & Enquiries

thiago.pinto.barbosa@zmo.de heike.liebau@zmo.de

Thursday, 20 June 2019

9:00–9:30

Opening

Botakoz Kassymbekova (Forum Transregionale Studien),
Heike Liebau (ZMO)

9:30–11:00

Text-based Discussion

Moderation: Thiago P. Barbosa (ZMO), Tika Ramadhini (ZMO)

11:00–11:30

Break

11:30–13:00

Panel: Women Scientists and Knowledge Outputs I

Commentator: Julia Roth (Bielefeld University)

Johanna Ziebritzki (Heidelberg University):
Stella Kramrisch's realization of Indian art with transcultural practices and through hybridizations of methods in Indian and Europe between 1920 and 1940.

Amurabi Oliveira (Federal University of Santa Catarina):
Ruth Landes (1908-1991) and her understanding of Brazil in
'The City of Women'.

13:00–14:30

Lunch

14:30–16:30

Panel: Education

Commentator: Ulrike Freitag (ZMO)

Johanna L. Peterson (University of California, San Diego):
Reconceptualizing Knowledge Production in the Middle East:
Girls' Schools, the Nation, and the Female Citizen, 1919-1951.

Tika Ramadhini (ZMO):

Varied and Dependent: Jawah Women's Agency in Circulating Knowledge in the Late 19th- Early 20th Century's Mecca-Malay Archipelago Connection.

Divya Kannan (Shiv Nadar University):

Donning Many Hats: British Female Missionaries and Boarding Schools in Colonial South India.

Jana Tschurenev (HU Berlin):

Women's activism, trans-regional knowledge circulation, and the nationalisation of 'child education' in India (1917-1950s).

16:30–17:00

Break

17:00–18:30

Panel: Women Scientists and Knowledge Outputs II

Commentator: Razak Khan (University of Göttingen)

Thiago P. Barbosa (ZMO):

A Scientist's Situatedness and The Transformation of Knowledge.

Urmilla Deshpande (Independent Writer, USA):

Skulls and Bones: Irawati Karvé in Berlin, 1928.

19:00–20:00

Dinner

Friday, 21 June

10:00–10:30

Recap Discussion

10:30–12:00

Panel: Imperialism and (De)coloniality I

Commentator: Hilal Alkan (ZMO/ASH Berlin)

Rüstem Ertuğ Altınay (Sabancı University):
Women's vocational education and the transregional circulation of knowledge in and about Turkey.

Müge Özbek (Koç University):
Female Companions of Ottoman Civil Servants and Army Officers across the Empire and Their Knowledge of Space 1877-1914.

12:00–13:15

Lunch

13:15–14:45

Panel: Imperialism and (De)coloniality II

Commentator: Rasha Chatta (Forum Transregionale Studien, SOAS)

Muhammad Buana (University Gadjah Mada):
The Keeper of Tradition: How Two Malay-Descend Princesses at Tanete Kingdom Preserved A Cryptic Arabic-Bugis Script in the Late 19th Century.

Jahnabi B. Chanchani (University of Michigan):
The Golden Threshold of Sarojini Naidu: Knowledge, Poetry, Transregional Movements, and the Forging of a New India.

14:45–15:00

Break

15:00–16:30

Panel: Scientific Networks

Commentator: Ergün Özgür (ZMO)

Irina Nastasă-Matei (University of Bucharest):
Academic migration of women from Romania to Germany throughout the 20th century. The case of the Humboldt fellowships.

Amelia Bonea (University of Heidelberg):
A Woman in Earth Sciences: Networks of Knowledge and Institution Building in South Asia.

16:30–16:40

Break

16:40–17:30

Lecture Performance

Commentators: Nazan Üstündağ (Forum Transregionale Studien), Franziska Roy (ZMO)

Anuja Ghosalkar (Drama Queen - Documentary Theatre Company)
Reading with Kiran Kumar (artist/ researcher):

"I, He, Her".

17:30–18:30

Closing Discussion

19:00–21:00

Dinner

Saturday, 22 June

10:30–12:30

Excursion: Women and Colonialism in Berlin,
With Jacqueline Mayen (Berlin Postkolonial)

Meeting Point: Institute for European Ethnology
Mohrenstraße 40/42, Berlin-Mitte

12:30

Farewell Lunch in Berlin-Mitte (optional)

